

SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY
LIBRARY

THE LIAISON LIBRARIAN PERSPECTIVE ON SCHOLARLY COMMUNICATION

2007 – 2010 Three year plan

- Enhancing scholarly communication is a major theme identified on the SFU Library's three year plan.
- In the process of raising awareness and educating the liaison librarians.
- Supporting academic publishing through increased knowledge of the changing landscape of scholarly communication.

For Librarians

- June 2007 - Workshop on Scholarly Communication for liaison librarians (UBC/SFU/UVic).
- July 2007 – PKP Scholarly Publishing Conference
- December 2007 – Building on Experience: Continuing the Scholarly Communication Conversation.
- March 2008 - Scholarly Communication website.

For Faculty

- May 2007 – Campus Forum for Journal Editors
- July 2007 – PKP Scholarly Publishing Conference
- October 2007 – OJS in a Day Workshop
- November 2007 – Celebration of SFU authors
- March 2008 – Scholarly Communication Website

What SFU Library is doing?

- BioMedCentral Membership
- PLoS Membership
- Supporter for the Stanford Encyclopedia of Philosophy
- PNAS Site License

- OJS and PKP
- Synergies

Liaison Librarians can:

- Stay informed
- Understand the issues and how it affects publishing in their liaison areas.
- Be ready to respond to queries from faculty and students about academic publishing.