EDITORIAL

From the Editor's desk: Medline and Beyond

The one constant in medicine is constant change. As students, we appreciate the evolving nature of our understanding of diseases, their pathophysiologies and manifestations, their treatment modalities, and the lives they affect. The crucial role which clinicians play in this evolution is ...

 PubMed Central

A free archive of life sciences journals

About PMCJournal ListFor PublishersUtilities

PubMed Central (PMC) is the U.S. National Institutes of Health (NIH) free digital archive of biomedical and life sciences journal literature.

Find Articles Advanced search

Browse PMC journals: [\[A-B\]](#) [\[C-H\]](#) [\[I-M\]](#) [\[N-S\]](#) [\[T-Z\]](#) [\[Full List\]](#) [\[New Journals\]](#)

Receive notice of new journals and other major updates to PMC: join the PMC News mail list or subscribe to the PMC News RSS feed.

All the articles in PMC are free (sometimes on a delayed basis). Some journals go beyond free, to Open Access. Find out what that means.

PMC's utilities include an OAI service that provides XML of the full-text of some articles, functions for scripting PMC searches and linking to specific PMC articles from your site, and more ...

Looking for a modern journal article DTD? Take a look at NLM's Journal Publishing XML DTD and schema.

It's about preservation and access: digitizing the complete run of back issues of many of the journals in PMC.

The PMC journal list comprises journals that deposit material in PMC on a routine basis and generally make all their published articles available here. Find out how to include your journal in PMC.

PMC also has the author manuscripts of articles published by NIH-funded researchers in various non-PMC journals. Increasing free access to these articles is the goal of the NIH Public Access policy. Similar manuscripts from researchers funded by the Wellcome Trust are available in PMC as well.

Eligible researchers should use the NIH Manuscript Submission system to deposit manuscripts.

RePEc: Research Papers in Economics

http://repec.org/

Most Visited Getting Started Latest Headlines WebCT SFU-Mail Blogger :: Pick New ...

RePEc

How you can use RePEc | RePEc information for participants | Major participants and activity

RePEc (Research Papers in Economics) is a collaborative effort of hundreds of volunteers in 66 countries to enhance the dissemination of research in economics. The heart of the project is a decentralized database of working papers, journal articles and software components. All RePEc material is freely available.

You may add your own materials to RePEc through a department or institutional archive -- all institutions are welcome to join and contribute their materials by establishing and maintaining their own RePEc archive. If your institution does not yet participate in RePEc, you may submit your own papers to MPRA (the Munich Personal RePEc Archive), and they will automatically be included in RePEc. RePEc does not support personal archives (only institutional archives).

RePEc collaborates with the American Economic Association's EconLit database to provide content from leading universities' working paper series to EconLit. If your university does not contribute its working paper series to RePEc, please contact us for assistance, or view the "step by step" instructions at IDEAS.

Please note that RePEc does not contain full-text journal articles. RePEc services provide links to many full text articles, but you may need a personal or institutional subscription to follow those links. If a working paper or journal article is not indicated as "downloadable", please contact the author or publisher for assistance.

The RePEc database holds over 727,000 items of interest, over 615,000 of which are available online:

- 285,000 working papers
- 435,000 journal articles
- 1,700 software components
- 5,200 book and chapter listings
- 19,500 author contact and publication listings
- 11,000 institutional contact listings

Bookmark this page to easily locate our services to the economics profession.

How you can use RePEc:

The following web sites offer all or part of the RePEc database for you to browse or search:

-  RePEc Author Service: Author registration
-  Munich Personal RePEc Archive: Authors in institutions lacking a RePEc archive can submit their papers to have them included in the RePEc database.
-  IDEAS: the complete RePEc database at your disposal. Working papers, journal articles, software components, author information, directory of institutions.
-  EconPapers: Economics at your fingertips. EconPapers provides access to RePEc, the world's largest collection of on-line Economics working papers, journal articles and software.

Actions:

1. Focus on Canadian research outputs and Canadian content
2. Focus on roles as a national focal point for international open access initiatives
 - SCOAP3 expression of interest
3. Focus on advancing open access provisions within content licensing program

Emerging Trends in Scholarly Communication

- E-science
- Open data (DemTech CLA Preconference)
- Datasets from very small to very large
- Collaboration
- Linking data (Tim Berners-Lee presentation)
- Evolving and new formats - new types of journals, blogs, wikis

Emerging jobs for librarians

- Institutional repository
- Publishing support
- Library specialists in collaborative teams - biolibrarian, research librarian, medical team librarian
- Traditional roles, new types of collections - preserving, collecting, reference
- Information literacy
