

Academic Integrity: Emerging Partnerships for Librarians, Faculty, and Students

Elaine Fairey, Mark Weiler, and Gordon Coleman
2006 BC Library Conference, April 20-22, 2006, Burnaby, BC

[This is an updated version of the handout distributed at the conference presentation.]

This webliography lists sources and URLs referred to in the presentation.

Senate Committee on Academic Integrity and Student Learning Environment (SCAISLE)

<http://www.sfu.ca/Senate/SenateComms/SCAISLE/>

SFU Student Learning Commons

<http://www.lib.sfu.ca/slc/>

The Vice-President Academic's Task Force on Academic Honesty and Integrity

<http://www.sfu.ca/integritytaskforce/index.html>

SFU Undergraduate Curriculum Initiative

<http://www.sfu.ca/ugcr/>

SFU Exam Bank

- Access the Reserves interface at <http://troj.lib.sfu.ca/search/r> and search for: exam bank
- You won't be able to display the PDFs without an SFU login

SFU Library Plagiarism Tutorial

- The WebCT version is available only to students registered in a course where it has been installed
- The openly available version (in MOSST, not WebCT) is here:
<http://www.lib.sfu.ca/researchhelp/tutorials/interactive/plagiarism/tutorial/introduction.htm>

Further resources

Center for Academic Integrity

<http://www.academicintegrity.org/>

Plagiarism: Cross-Disciplinary Studies in Plagiarism, Fabrication and Falsification

<http://www.plagiarism.org/>

College Reading and Learning Association

<http://www.crla.net/>

Excellent source of information about tutoring/mentoring, including certification programs, publications and useful links.

Guertin, L.A. (2005). Using virtual lectures to educate students on plagiarism. First Monday, 10(9). Retrieved February 15, 2006, from http://www.firstmonday.org/issues/issue10_9/guertin/

Guertin, a professor of earth sciences at Penn State, describes a 'virtual lecture' she created in PowerPoint on plagiarism. Interesting to contrast her approach with SFU Library's tutorial.