A Perpetual Access Clause

(www.crkn.ca/pr/?modellicense=1)

- On termination of this Agreement, the Consortium, Authorized Users and Walk-in Users shall retain the right to access and use in archived form the content... On termination of this Agreement, the Publisher shall at its option:
- provide each Member, on request, with an electronic copy of the content of the Database for the period of time set out in Schedule 3 up to the date of termination, or
- provide for continued access to the Licensed Materials on the Server for the period of time set out in Schedule 3 up to the date of termination

Perpetual Access Scenarios

- ❑ Subscription to a journal that ceases publication
- ❑ Subscription to a journal that is cancelled by a library
- ❑ Subscription to a journal that is sold or transferred to another publisher
- ❑ Subscription to a journal whose publisher goes out-of-business
- ❑ Subscription to a bundle of journals that has a fluid title list
- ❑ Subscription to a bundle of journals where the publisher goes out of business
- ❑ Subscription to a bundle of journals where the publisher is bought completely or partially by another publisher
- ❑ Subscription to a bundle of journals that is not renewed by a library or consortium
- ❑ Subscription to a bundle of journals that is cancelled by a library or consortium

Perpetual Access Scenarios In Licenses

- License states that perpetual access is included.
- License specifies a particular method of fixed media delivery
- License specifies that the content will be stored on the publisher's server
- License specifies that the content will be stored on a third-party server
- License allows for local loading of the content
- License specifies that the content can be included in a distributed cooperative caching venture
- License specifies that the content can be archived by the licensee in some way
